TED CRUZ FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL CAMPAIGN RAISES MORE THAN $1 MILLION SINCE FEBRUARY 2009

Contributions large, small come in from all parts of Texas

AUSTIN, Texas—Former Texas Solicitor General Ted Cruz announced Monday that his campaign for Texas Attorney General has raised more than $1 million from donors across Texas since February.

“It’s encouraging and deeply humbling to see such a tremendous team come together all across Texas,” said Cruz. “There is a palpable hunger today for new and principled leadership to defend economic freedom and Texas values. Texans of all ages and backgrounds are responding overwhelmingly to our campaign’s positive message, and the growing excitement has given us remarkable momentum.”

George Strake, Jr., Cruz’s campaign treasurer and former chairman of the Republican Party of Texas, said: “In my opinion, Ted Cruz is the future of the Republican Party. Ted is by far the best qualified candidate for Texas Attorney General, and he has a proven record of standing up and fighting for conservative principles and winning on a national level.”

Over 500 individuals contributed to Cruz’s campaign from 57 Texas cities and 18 States across the nation. Nearly half of the donations were made online.

Cruz is also gaining substantial support in the “new media,” with some 3,500 friends and supporters on Facebook, Twitter, and LinkedIn.
